PRAYER OF THE DAY

O God, in your love you have given each of us gifts and talents to serve the common good. Help us to use them lovingly and generously, for we are your children. Free us from the desire to serve only our own interests, and help us to grow in a spirit of love.

Thought for the Week

*“Never be in a hurry;
Do everything quietly and in a calm spirit.
Do not lose your inner peace
For anything whatsoever,
Even if your whole world seems upset.”*

Service of Reflection Join us in a service which draws on the healing practice of lament, Friday 21st of June 2024 at St Anne's Cathedral, Donegall Street, Belfast from 11.30am to 12.30pm.

Using the biblical practice of lament, this service offers a space to reflect on the conflict in and about Northern Ireland as well as the future that is before us. In this space we acknowledge our deep hurt and pain, reflect on what we might have done or might still do, and commit ourselves to a future where such suffering and loss does not happen. This is a service for everyone because violence has affected all of us.

This service is part of the Day of Reflection, established by Healing Through Remembering in 2007 and held on the longest day of the year in partnership with Corrymeela, Wave Trauma Centre, St John's Parish, Belfast Cathedral and the Commission for Victims and Survivors.
